

pp. 96 +1 tav. n.t. - € 7,90

Dante al cospetto di Dio - In the Divine Comedy Dante for the first time in the history of literature attempts to represent the mysteries so far unsolved of the infinite and the divine. The last Canto of the Paradiso, thrilling epilogue of the trip, tells about the arrival at the finish line, with the dazzling vision of God.

Enrico Malato - Literary critic, literary historian, Professor emeritus of Italian literature at the University of Naples Federico II, he's the coordinator of the "New commented Edition of the Works of Dante.

New books by great authors of our time, on subjects, figures, moments and aspects of the culture and history

astrolabio

Series directed by Enrico Malato