

MURAT

The military and political career, and the fall of Joachim Murat: The soldier that earned, on the side of Napoleon, the throne of the Kingdom of Naples. A biography that traces the life of Joachim Murat: the humble origins, the successful military career alongside Napoleon, the famous enterprises in Italy, Egypt and Prussia in the campaign that brought him to the throne of the Kingdom of Naples. In addition to political events, Renata De Lorenzo talks about his passion and his marriage to Catherine Bonaparte (sister of Napoleon), about the life of the French court in Naples (1808-1815), the suffered relationship and the continuing conflict with Napoleon.

A historical biography accurate and well documented, easy to read even for the large audience of enthusiasts.
