

pages XVIII-646
 price € 28,00
 isbn 978-88-8402-952-2

NAPOLEON - THIRD EDITION

In the occasion of the bicentennial of great sovereign's death, (1815-2015) will be back in the bookstores, in an updated and enhanced edition by a new large introductory chapter, the Napoleon by Luigi Mascilli Migliorini, winner of the Grand Prix of the Fondation Napoléon, that become in recent years one of the major biographies of the great character. A fascinating book, a renewed, comprehensive contribution to the knowledge of one of the most attractive figures of history. The narrative, thanks to special anecdotal and authoritative literary sources, is compelling and the author rather than celebrate the politician or military man, focuses on the history of the man, "spectator and actor" of his own existence in the historical context in which he lived.

LUIGI MASCILLI MIGLIORINI, is a professor of Modern history and one of the leading specialists of the Revolutionary and Romantic period in Europe. His biography of Napoleon, published in this same series, and translated into French, won the Grand Prix of the "Fondation Napoléon".

e-book available!

